Instant Message From: FilmsDeLover

FilmsDeLover: Depuis le tournage en 1997, quelques lieux de cette carte ont disparu ou ont changé. « The shop around the corner » était à l'origine une brocante avant de devenir un café puis désormais une laverie. « Ocean Grill » a aussi disparu et est désormais un immeuble d'habitations. « H&H Bagels » est désormais un magasin « Verizon » qui vend des téléphones. Ne vous attendez donc pas à vous retrouver tout à fait dans le film. Mais tous les autres lieux existent encore.

Instant Message From: NY152

NY152: I had a gut feeling you would be on line now.
NY152: I can give you advice. I'm great at advice.
Shoggirl: If only you could help.
NY152: Is it about love?
Shoggirl: No, my business is in trouble.
NY152: I'm a brilliant businessman. It's what I do best. What's your business?
Shoggirl: No specifics, remember?
NY152: Minus specifics, it's hard to help. Except to say: «Go to the mattresses».
Shoggirl: What?
NY152: It's from «The Godfather». It means you have to go to war.
Shoggirl: What is it with men and «The Godfather»?
NY152: «The Godfather» is the I Ching. «The Godfather» is the sum of all wisdom. «The Godfather» is the answer to any question. What should I pack for my summer vacation? «Leave the gun, take the cannoli.» What day of the week is it? Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday. And the answer to your question is «Go to the mattresses. You're at war. It's not personal, it's business.» Recite that to yourself everytime you feel you're losing your nerve. I know you worry about being brave. Don't. This is your chance. Fight. Fight to the death.
